

Urban Form Hub/ Seminar 1

Hosted by:
KTH/ABE,
Urban Design Department,
Prof. Alexis Pontvik, Stockholm

Date:
June 17th, 2014

Place:
Lecture Hall A2,
Entrance floor, KTH
Östermalmsgatan 26
100 44 Stockholm

Moderator:
Ass. Prof. Dr. Tigran Haas

09.00 Alexis Pontvik
Welcome and brief description of the event.

09.10 Prof. Mohamed Chaoui, National School of Architecture, Rabat
Process Typology of the Growth of the New Settlement of Mass Housing in Morocco.

09.50 Ass. Prof. Dr. Ahmad Shalaby, Cairo University
Egyptian New Cities Program, a morphological and typological analysis of the already developed new cities, development of more compact new cities.

10.30 Coffee Break

10.50 Prof. Alexis Pontvik, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm
Stockholm City Developments – Continuity and Fragmentation.

11.30 Prof. Abdellah Abarkan, Blekinge Institute of Technology, Karlskrona
Urban Form as Process.

12.10 Prof. Neema Kudva, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York
Urban Reality in India: Form, Morphology and Growth Patterns in the Context of Smaller Cities.

12.50 Lunch Break

13.50 Prof. Sahar Attia, Cairo University
Rethinking Urban Form: Sprawl versus Liveability.

14.30 Prof. Andrés Borthagary, Director of Strategic Planning, City of

Buenos Aires
Public Spaces Under the Pressure of Mobility, example Buenos Aires.

15.10 Coffee Break

15.30 Prof. Anne Vernez Moudon, University of Washington, Seattle, WA.
Revisiting the Basic Elements of Urban Form: Lots, Building Types, Street-blocks, Street Networks and Hierarchies.

16.10 Summing Up
Gathering in Entrance Hall